During the evening the following letters were laid before the Conventions.

ISAAC V. FOWLER, Boq. New YORR, Nov. 17, 1859.

MY DEAR SIR—It having been intimated to me that my name will be presented to the Convention which meets to night at Tammany Hall for the purpose of meminating a candidate for the office which I now hold, I beg to say to you—and through you to the Convention—that, while I am deeply sensible of the fidelity of my friends, and thankful to the democracy of this city for the cordial support which I received, I am not a candidate for re-election.

I believe in the doctrine of rotation in place, and that no one man deserves, or should be allowed to enjoy, a monopoly of any office in the gift of the democratic party. I have no doubt that your Convention will be guided to a wise choice, and I assure you that the nominoe of Tammany Hall will receive my carnest and active support.

Faithfully yours, RICHARD BUSTEED.

Faithfully yours, RICHARD BUSTEED.

MR. D. KENNEDY DECLINES A NOMINATION.

To the CHAIMMAN of the Democratic City Convention, Tammany Hall:—

Siz—My name having been used in connection with the democratic nomination for the office of Mayor of this city, and the body over which you preside being clothed with the duty of selecting a candidate for the regular organization of the democratic party, it is proper to state, through you, to my friends in the Convention, that I am not a candidate for the office in question, and do not desure the nomination.

through you, to my friends in the Convention, that I am not a candidate for the office in question, and do not desire the nomination.

I stated thus much at a late meeting of the General Committee, but lest there might still be any misapprobasion as to my position, I repeat it in this formal manner. The democratic party of this city should be united for the approaching municipal contest, not only in principle but in feeling.

I believe that a gentleman may be selected worthy to represent our principles, and in a position to receive the cordial and united support of our entire organization. For the success of such a candidate I will labor as scalously and the first of the success of such a candidate I will labor as eaclously and the first of the support of our entire organization. For the success of such a candidate I will labor as scalously and the first of the support of our entire organization. For the success is beyond question or dispute.

Taking this opportunity to return to my friends in the convention, and throughout the organization, my grateful thanks for the support which they have extended to my name in connection with the Mayorasty, I remain, sir, your very obedient servant, WM. D. KENNEDY.

New York, Nov. 17, 1859.

The crowd without remained undiminished to the close, patronizing the bar freely and discussing the chances of their favorite candidates, but were finally obliged to go home peaceably, without a chance to hurrah and not the slightest symptom of a row.

Court of Common Pleas. SUIT AGAINST THE MICHIGAN SOUTHERN RAILROAD COMPANY.

Northern Indiana Radroad Company.—The plaintiff brings this suit for $532 for services, with interest from the 20th of May, 1858. It appeared from the testimony that the plaintiff entered into an agreement with the defendants as clerk for a term of one year, at the office of the comas clerk for a term of one year, at the effice of the com-pany in this city, and for his services he was to receive the sum of fifteen hundred dollars per annum, in month-ly pay ments. The complaint alleges that the plaintiff en-tered upon his duties and duly transacted the same until the 6th of October, 1867, when the defendants would no longer permit him to perform his duties as such clerk, and that the defendants have refused to pay him the re-sidue of the sum of $1,500, which amounts to $800 30. The defendants deny that they made a contract or agree-ment with the plaintiff, or that he duly transacted the duties of clerk; also, that they had satisfied the plaintiff's claim already by paying him, at his request, the sum of $125. Verdict for plaintiff for full amount claimed.

Stimms.—Coroner Bennett held an inquest yesterday upon the body of a farm laborer, named Mathlas Schoen-thaler, who committed suicide at his boarding house, on the line of Seventh avenue, Now Utrecht, the day previous, by cutting his throat with a razor. The decoased was out of work, and having paid his last cent for board, with no prospect of earning more, grew desponding. After tea he retired to his room, and the immates of the house having been attracted by an unusual noise, west to see, and found him struggling in the agonies of death. The deceased was fifty years of age and unmarried. A verdict of "suicide" was rendered, and the body was interred in the county burying ground.

As there had been no reward offered, the officers left, refusing to give any information respecting Jones, and intimating that they should look out for a reward.

RUN OVER.—Last evening a man named Michael Graw ney was run over at the corner of Montgomery and War-ren streets, Jersey City, by a wagon driven by Hugh Gaffney. The injured man was taken to a drug store, when it was ascertained that the wheel had passed over his head, crushing his nose and otherwise injuring him.

THE FETATE OF THE LATE AUSTIN D. MOORE.—The Surrogate of Kings county has just decided, in the matter of the will of the late Austin D. Moore, formerly a resident of Williamsburg, and for many years connected with the Peck slip ferry, that he being at the time of his death domiciled in the State of Florida, the widow must have one third of the cetate, as is allowed her by the laws of the State of Florida. This decision has been taken to the Supreme Court on an appeal by one of the executors and guardian for the infant children. The testimony taken before the Surrogate showed that from the time Mr. Moore settled in Williamsburg till 1855 he was a resident of Williamsburg. In 1855 he sold his house and furniture and purchased a plantation in Florida, and made preparations for a permanent residence, and didpermanently reside there until his death in February, 1857. It was shown that after his removal South he expressed in his letters the intention of making that his home, and never expected to return. Upon this the Surrogate based his decision.

lt is stated that a new paper issue of fifteen million dollars has been made, on which the house of Jecker has concluded an arrangement with the government. The following are the base of the arrangement.—

The government issues $150,000,000 of new bonds, with interest at six per cent per annum. Half of the interest is guaranteed by Jecker & Co. for five years. The bonds will be received in payment of the fifth of all dues, contributions, &c., payable by private persons to the government, including import and registration dues. These bonds are given in exchange for the bonds of the interior debt, previous or subsequent to the 17th of December.

Woll and Costillo had been attempting to collect a forced loan of $50,000 imposed on the inhabitants of Aguascalentes. Much resistance was made, and many of the inhabitants who refused to pay were imprisoned. Three were put in the pillory, and kept there till they consented to contribute. Doblado, with two thousand men, was following up Woll and Costillo.

The dibutante, Albertini, had a merited success. In her personal characteristics she reminds one somewhat of La Grange. She is not strikingly handsome, but has a very agreeable stage presence, and, without being a great actress, is still perfectly au fait to the business of the scene. As a singer, Mme. Albertini has a thoroughly good method, and it is clear that she has been educated in the best thod, and it is clear that she has been educated in the best Italian school. She sings with true dramatic earnestness, and is a really good artist, who will become very popular. The quality of Mme. 'Albertini's voice could hardly be judged from last night's performance, as she was suffering from hoarseness; but in quantity it seemed quite equal to the requirements of the music. Signor Beaucardé improved upon the very favorable impression he has already made here. ANATIVE VERSION OF THE APPAIR—JOHN WARD IN BIGH PAVOR AT COURT, AND HIS TREATY SEALED AND ORDERED FOR EXCHANGE.

[From the Pekin Gazette, Aug. 3]

The following was handed us in manuscript, and, if genuine, is an important document. In the form and style we are assured there is nothing to bring its genuineness that question—

On the 11th day of the 7th moon of the 9th year of Hien Fung [with August, 1859.] the Inner Council had the honor to receive the following decree:—

Last year the shaps of the Ying-hib-li [English] nation sailed into the port of Thousing, and opened a fire upon our twosys. We accordingly instructed the Khorohin Prince Eangloinain to forthly Ta-ku well, and the [envoys of the] different battons coming up to exchange treaties on this occasion were told by Kwe ilang and Hwachina at Shanghae that Ta-ku was so fortified for, was placed on the defensivel, and they must go round by the port Peh-Uang. We accordingly authorized his admission into Peking to present it, and having this day perused the letters addressed by the American Envoy, John Ward, to Kneetlang and Heanhana, and laid befare us by those munisters, we find their language so respectful, the true-hea techness that has prompted them such, that we have authorized the encoying question to presentithe letter he is charged with from his government to Kweitlang and his colleague, whom we have ent to receive it.

As regards the exchange of this treaty, he ought properly to return to Shanghae and exchange it there, but in consideration of the long voyage he has made we [are pleased] specially to authorize that the seal be appended to the treaty fand that it be delivered to Hangfuh to hand it is acchange [for another copy] to the aforesaid envoy, that from the date of the exchange there may be pecu and commerce for ever more. Thus do we manifest our great desire to show a nursing tenderness to the men from afar, and our appreciation of good just and right principle.

EXECUTIVE APPOINTMENTS AND PROMPT OFFICIAL THANSACTIONS.

Our name occurs in one other paper, a long memorial on the death of Ulbintal, a noble Mongohan commanding in Yengthissar, one of the far west Mahometan colonies in China. He had beerved against Jehangir in his rebellion of 1826, and in "42, "when the English barbarians were not quice the received orders to take the field at Shanghae." In 1828 he had been sent to exterminate rebels in the neighborhood of Hwi-king, and having been premoted to the Yengthissar command in 1886, stood a siege of 100 days during a local Mahometan revolt. His exertions during this expended him. The Gasefie of the 8th contains the memorial of Yih-Shan, acknowledging the decree translated in our issue of the 23d July, regarding the Russian concession in the valley of Usuri. In obedience to this decree he has sent the Lieutenant General Kilaminga down to Usuri to be exposed in the cangue. Yih-Shan, as commander in cheff of Tsitihar, resides at the city of English as the crow the not less than eix hundred miles north of Pekin, communications with which appear to be by way of Kirin, far to the east. Luchang a McMing, say colonel, from Kirin, reached Sagalien on the 2d of July with the aforesand docree of the 18th of June. Yih Shan read it with awe and proceeded to select a good man to act for the officer about to be cangued. He chose Aishinival, already recommended, to aid in managing the barbariun (Russian) business, and sent off Kilaminga in charge of Luchang to the Usuri. The promptitude with which these orders were carried, executed and published is deserving of note.
